BUILDING PERMITS.

The following building permits were issued yesterday:

G F Foster, frame residence, Meade ave 500

That state canal of Wichita's collapse is still in circulation among our eastern exchanges. Couldn't somebody improvise a panoramic view of our principal business thoroughfares for exhibition in some of those miasma-grown villages east of the Mississippi river? It might serve to dispel the nightmare which seems to disturb their otherwise peaceful day dreams.

A LECTURE.

Elder D. R. Lucas, of Des Moines, Iowa, will deliver a lecture at the Christian church, corner of Lawrence and Lincoln avenues, on Saturday (tomorrow) evening. Subject, Laughter and Tears.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Daily, new base ball stock is being taken. Mr. Walden will issue to any one desiring the same from his office.
The club is getting in some good practice. Arrangements are being made for an interesting game tomorrow.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners held a meeting yesterday in the county clerk's office and awarded the contract for the erection of a bridge across the Ninnescah on the township line between Grand river and Morton township to Mr. Sawyer. Some other questions of interest relating to the county were discussed but nothing else of interest transacted.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Last evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Goldstein quite a number of friends of herself and Mr. Goldstein gathered at their pleasant residence on North Emporia. The evening was spent in the enjoyment of musical and literary exercises. Mrs. Goldstein was the recipient of a goodly number of very elegant presents.

OPERA HOUSE NOTES.

Mr. L. M. Crawford has contracted with L. I. Graham of Kansas City, for the scenery for his new opera house. The bid calls for $4,300.
The concrete work for the foundation has been completed and brick laying will commence in a few days.

TWO SHOTS.

Wednesday night near 11 o'clock a quartette of "truffs" got into a melee on the corner of Central avenue and Main street. The dispute became bitter between a couple and they decided to fight it out on the ground. One changed his notion suddenly and opened up a fire on his opponent. The latter had no artillery along and sid around the corner on the double quick. Two shots were fired but neither took effect.

A PRETTY PICTURE.

Professor Neatius Baldwin, the photographer, caught the Eagle building the other morning with his camera just as the news boys and carriers were getting out with their papers. He made a cabinet picture of it and sends us a couple of copies. The building and the two or three dozen boys each with his papers under his arm, all brought out in the light of the early morning sun, which just tips the outspread wings of the front makes a lively and a pretty picture.

AMUSEMENTS.

MINNIE MADDERN AT CRAWFORD'S.

Miss Minnie Maddern appeared as Mercy Baxter and Lucy Ashin in Howard Taylor's play "Captive." The story of the play is in itself interesting. Mercy, the totally uneducated daughter of a farmer fascinates a young artist of good family who spends his holidays in the neighborhood of her father's home in the Adirondacks. A short period of love in a cottage ensues, but the artist grows weary of his poor little ungrammatical wife, and, after much pathetic expostulation with her father for not having sent her to school, she leaves her husband and devotes eight years to her education.

Everything turns up all right in the end. Miss Maddern is a very charming actress and one of the very best that ever appeared upon the stage in Wichita. She has a rich, cultivated voice and gains and holds the attention of her audience from the first to the last. She possesses too that wonderful faculty of losing herself in the character she portrays. Her support was excellent; Mr. J. T. Herndon as Jethro Baxter, Mercy's father, Mr. Harry W. Emmet as Philander Potts, the Professor, and Miss Lulu Kline as Carrie Watson, deserving special mention. The performance as a whole gave eminent satisfaction and was received with the highest appreciation by the audience.
Caprice will be repeated tonight.

GARFIELD OPERA HOUSE.

A very attractive and interesting programme will be presented this evening for the benefit of Forest City L. A. 5320, K. of L., when will be presented the second act of each of the following operas: Mascotte, Olivette, and Mikado, introducing all the favorites in each act. A. H. Knoll, who has already made himself a favorite, will perform some of his cornet solos. Miss May Smith will introduce her superb specialty, "Little Irish Maid." The vocal quartette by the Irish Club, Messrs. Alden, Hull, Collins and Hoffmaster will also appear, thus constituting a most attractive programme.

MUSEUM.

The change of bill yesterday at this resort attracted the usual crowd, and the comedy of "The Dumb Bell" and farce of "Kiss in the Dark," proved an instantaneous success. Several attractive novelties, all in active preparation for immediate production.

THE COURTS.

DISTRICT COURT.

State vs. Peck was on the docket for yesterday. The case was brought in from Cheney, and it was charged that the defendant had sold property not his own. The action was commenced and a jury impaneled, when, for want of sufficient evidence, it was dismissed.

PROBATE COURT.

Petition filed by J. C. Williams to be appointed administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Williams, deceased.

B. M. Culler appointed guardian for the High minors; guardian inventory filed.

Deed in Hattie B. Walker estate approved.

POLICE COURT.

Hugh Conway was the name given by one of the drunks before his honor yesterday and Lewis Madden that given by the other. Conway was committed, Madden paid his fine and was released.

A. Ainsworth was riding along the sidewalk. Officer Hooker informed the youth that the proper place for horses was out in the street and enforced the lesson by taking him before Judge Dixon who assessed a fine of $1 and costs.

An unusually large number of drunks were confined in the cooler yesterday. On account of their intoxicated condition they will not be given trials until this morning.

JUSTICE COURT.

There was a great deal of business mostly civil, however, in both of the justices courts yesterday.
At Justice Walker's a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of a man who it is alleged picked the pockets of Barney Finnigan, securing $13.40 in money. The money was stolen from Finnigan while he was asleep. His friends discovering the thief in the act, gave chase and capturing him handed him over to the officers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

An organization of the Royal Arcanum will take place in a few days, hence it is requested that all resident members of this order meet at Dr. Morgan's office on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Queen City Lodge No. 20, D. of H. tonight, in the A. O. U. W. hall, No. 117 North Market street.

Wichita Chapter meets this evening for work in the Royal Arch.

Architect Alfred Gould is drawing plans for a $10,000 residence for Mr. R. E. Lawrence. It will be located on Maple street near Seneca street.

Miss Minnie Maddern, the distinguished young actress, and her aunt, who accompanies her in her professional trips, are stopping at Hotel Gondolfo.

William Norris, New York, J. Harper, Argonia, Kan., Samuel M. Hunt, Racine, Wis., and W. R. Carlton, Augusta, were among yesterday's arrivals at Hotel Gondolfo.

Mrs. Gladden, of Appleton City, Missouri, and her daughter, Mrs. Nixon Elliott, of this city, honored the EAGLE sanctum and its occupant with a friendly call yesterday morning.

The officers of the Woman's Guild will please accept our acknowledgments for a highly illuminated picture of a bald eagle, full size, surrounded with garlands of flowers and fancy fringes.

Mr. McCarty has almost completed a fine large building, near the corner of Oak and Main, to be used for a livery stable. The front will be two stories, and 40x40; the annex in the rear 30x60.

Harry L. Gordon, of the law firm of Gordon & Coffin, is entertaining his parents from Indiana. This is their first visit to Wichita, and it is needless to say they are delighted with our growth and prosperity.

Mr. C. S. Hodson, of Hutchinson arrived in the city yesterday. He says he wanted to spend a few days in a live city so he thought he would come to Wichita. He seems to enjoy city life and will probably remain some days.

Last evening Officer Williams arrested a man at the Santa Fe depot who had thrown himself before an engine with the evident intention of committing suicide. He was very much intoxicated and was landed in the cooler.

Mr. W. T. Galbraith from Indiana is in the city looking over the facilities for starting a wholesale and retail glass house. He has been in the metropolis but a few days and is highly pleased with the appearance of things.

Carpenters were yesterday finishing the wood work upon the store building being erected on East Douglas by Mr. Stone; the painters have commenced upon the front.

Architects are drawing plans for a Catholic school building to be erected near the Catholic church building on the corner of Second street and Fourth avenue. The building will be of brick, two stories high, costing near $8,000.

Yesterday evening some of the neighbors of Mrs. Stites discovered the door of her house open and knowing that she was away notified her sons, the Stites brothers, at Neiderlander's. A sneak thief had evidently entered the house during her absence.

Rev. Percy Clinton Webber, of Boston, a prominent young clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal church, and who for some months been devoting himself to mission work in Kansas, was in the city a short time. An effort will be made to have him preach at least one Sunday in Wichita.

Commodore Woodman has regained his apparent usual health, but has not regained his wonted vigor and heartiness. He will, therefore, in a few days saunter off leisurely down to the Atlantic coast to try a change of food, water, etc., which we have no doubt will have the desired effect, and that speedily.

For Sale.

Another Earthquake.

But not very near Wichita, so you need not be alarmed. You can just step down to Market street on Douglas avenue and notice that electric railway being built if you have any doubts about it, and then you can go at once and engage your girl for that 4th of July picnic in Alamo Grove on the Little river and tell her it is a part of the beautiful Alamo addition. You say to her, also, that that train will be run by lightning. But before that time you had better run out and look the ground over and select some of those lots while you can get at a bargain now. Prices will be higher soon, and you will kick yourself because you didn't take some of them in. Liberal terms and inducements will be offered purchasers and those wishing to build.
